

WATER QUALITY & HEALTH COUNCIL

Chris J. Wiant, M.P.H., Ph.D.

Water Quality & Health Council Chair
President and CEO, Caring for Colorado Foundation

Chris J. Wiant, M.P.H., Ph.D., serves as chair of the Water Quality & Health Council, culminating years of involvement in national, state and local public health and environmental policy. He has served in appointed positions on numerous boards and commissions, including current responsibilities on the Colorado Water Quality Control Commission and the Colorado Pollution Prevention Advisory Board.

Dr. Wiant has received awards from NEHA, the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, the Food Service Packaging Institute, the University of Colorado Board of Regents, the Colorado School of Public Health, and the National Association of County and City Health Officials.

Dr. Wiant received a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Illinois State University, a Masters in Health Services Administration and Masters in Public Health from the University of Illinois, and his Ph.D. in Public Administration with an emphasis in environmental policy from the University of Colorado.

TOPIC AREAS

- Public health
- Environmental policy
- Water quality control
- Drinking water management
- Swimming pool safety
- Pollution prevention

AS FEATURED IN

The New York Times

FOR INTERVIEW INQUIRIES

Ryan Cohn
ryan@sachsmedia.com
850-222-1996